AND now the California fruit growers are forming a trust. What next?

The widow gave only a mite, but her gift will be remembered long after the Carnegie libraries have crumbled into dust.

THERE are more strikes on in the country now than at any time in years. The workman seems to believe in the adage of "strike till your armfice expires."

BEFORE the present year is many months older Kentucky will have a home for aged and indigent Confederates. It is "a plain duty" and patriotic privilege all too long neglected.

"The Louisville Times," says: "Every newspaper in the land," observes one of them, "is giving the Beef Trust a roast." And hoping that the Beef Trust will reciprocate in kind.

MOTHERS, fathers, do you have the best interests of your boy at heart? If so keep him off the streets at night. It is astonishing how many of our young lads roam the streets late into the night.

It is practically decided but not yet formally announced that the opening of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, will be postponed for one year, and possibly for two years. So Kentucky will yet get into the show.

It is an ill wind that blows no good. The high prices put on by the Meat Trust are driving the people to larger consumption of the more wholesome vegetable and fish diet. The average American eats twice as much meat as is good for him.

THE Democratic Committee of the Fourteenth Judicial District have ordered a primary for August 5th. The limit for entries is July 21. It is not probable there will be any opposition to Judge Cantrill and Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin.

THE habit of drunken men on the public streets using all kinds of obscene language should not be tolerated. It is almost impossible for a lady to be passing along without having to hear the vile talk of men who should show some little respect for their inferiors.

By all means, we should make an effort to get the meeting of the next State Conclave Knight Templar for this city. What our city needs is more meetings of all kinds. Anything that will tend to bring a large crowd of people together will be a success.

Gov. JEFF DAVIS unexpectedly returned to Little Rock and said his return was to answer the charges preferred against him by the members of the Second Baptist church of Little Rock. He speaks of the charges as being preferred by some who were too cowardly to sign their names.

WHILE Pierpont Morgan was abroad on a vacation he organized the steamship trust, for which he received $12,500,000. He was away on pleasure, but combined this little business with his recreation. If he makes money this way while on pleasure bent, what does he do during office hours?

WHEN it increases its defense fund and plans for a year's strike if necessary the Amalgamated Association of Iron Steel and Tin Workers appears to the somewhat incredulous about the efficacy of Uncle Mark Hanna's promise to make the Capital lion and labor Lamb lie down together in sweet amity.—Louisville Times.

Two of the child victims of that Philadelphia cigar factory panic are put down as twelve years old, and if the truth were known it would no doubt show that many of the tollers were even younger still, and that the Pennsylvania law against child labor is violated with impunity. A man would be considered as fool as well as a brute to work a yearling horse, yet the workers of tender undeveloped children are called philanthropists for giving the little ones employment. Are not human beings held cheaper than horses, and while we are shedding tears of sympathy for suffering "yellow bellies" on the other side of the world, can't we spare a few briny drops for the industrial tragedy being enacted under our eyes at home.—Louisville Times.

Conclave At Versailles.

The fifty-fifth annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery of Kentucky, Knights Templar, will be held at Versailles on Wednesday and Thursday, May 21 and 22nd. It promises to be one of the largest ever held in the State. Preparation has been made to entertain 1,000 Knights and ladies.

Versailles Commandery No. 3 will keep "open house" during the entire time and a number of delightful entertainments are being provided for the occasion. Among other features there will be an exhibition drill—in which several Commanderies have already entered—grand receptions, balls, lawn fetes, and carriage drives to the stock farms and historic home of Woodford county. There will be good things to eat and drink and good fellowship at Woodford's beautiful and hospitable capital for three solid days and nights. The entertainment accorded Jonah by the whale was positively frigid in comparison with the warm reception that Versailles Commandery will have in readiness for its guests.

The Committee on Decoration has arranged for a lavish display, and the entire city will be dressed in gala attire, while eight brass bands will charm the soul with music galore. The First Regiment Band, of Cincinnati, (20 pieces) has been engaged to play during the Conclave at Versailles Commandery Headquarters.

In short, the little pot will be encased in the big pot and the proverbial latch string will be found dangling on the weather side of the doors.

STOCK AND CROP.

PARIS COURT.

M. J. Murphy & Co., report: Dullest court in years. About 150 cattle on the market. C. P. Goff sold to W. B. Woodford, 30 head 1,000-lb. cattle at 5½c. J. V. Gardner sold to M. H. Bedford 30 yearlings, for $23.50 per head.

The wool buyers were offering 17 cents for wool yesterday.

J. H. Fuhrman sold yesterday one pair 16 mare mules to Carouthers & Baird, of Lexington for a fancy price.

The Kentucky tobacco crop of 1901, according to figures compiled by Agricultural Commissioner Nall from the reports of the County Assessors, amounted to 187,825,021 pounds.

Auctioneer Forsyth sold Saturday for Master Commissioner Dickson, 70 acres of land on the Indian Creek turnpike, near Colville, belonging to Endicott's heirs, to Charles T. Adair for $74.50 per acre.

Irrigation schemes are springing up all over the far west, and without doubt opportunities while offered to farmers abroad and at home to locate on these newly irrigated lands, securing them.

Wm. Fitzpatrick, of Wallacetown, a few days ago had a ewe to give birth to a lamb with only one head, but double in other respects; two bodies, eight legs and feet, two tails, etc. The lamb did not live, however.—Richmond Pantagraph.

THE DERBY.—Alan-a-Dale, the colt that won the Kentucky Derby Saturday afternoon, pulled up very lame after the race, and it is feared that he has broken down completely. Owner McDowell says that he is unable to locate the seat of the trouble, and that this fact argues well for the thoroughbred's chances to race again. He will certainly not start during the remainder of the Louisville meeting, and may not face the flag at all this year. He is valued by his owner at $50,000.

Lodge Notes.

The Bowling Green Lodge of Elks is arranging for a big street fair and carnival, to be held May 26-31. Delegations are being sent out to different points daily to advertise the event. The local lodge is one of the biggest in the State.

The Lexington Elks have appointed a committee with power to act, to purchase a suitable piece of property, on which they will build a home.

The Lexington lodge of Elks will attend the reunion at Louisville on May 29 and 30 in a body. There will be 250 in the delegation and they will carry a brass band and make their headquarters at the Galt House. They go for the purpose of bringing the reunion to Lexington next year.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
